

Slide 1

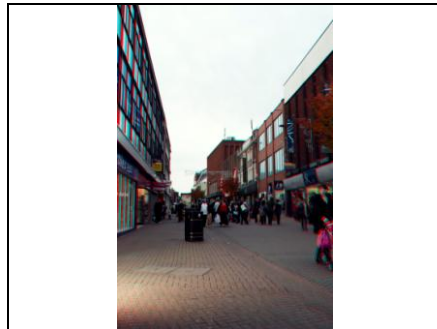

Slide 2

The Prophet

Once, in ancient times, there were those who longed for a different world ... And they wondered 'how would it begin?'

Slide 3

Bethlehem

And it was here, in a real place, with real people that the ordinary became extraordinary. It was here that a new world was born; and they wondered 'can anything good come from this place?'

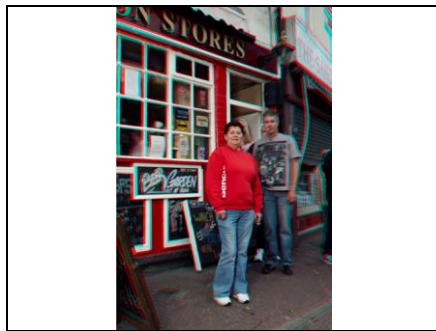

Slide 4

Mary and Joseph

It was the willingness of a young girl and her boyfriend that enabled it to be; and they wondered 'what will people say?'

Slide 5

The Inn Keeper

It was in the midst of the generous one, who offered the smallest of hospitality, that the wonder of new life was revealed.

Slide 6

The Angels

Some already knew, and they were overflowing with joy, but they wondered 'what will the world do with this?'

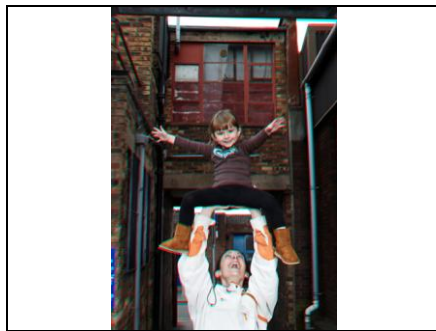

Slide 7

The Shepherds

It was the lads who were told the secret first; and they wondered 'why us? And not the leaders?'

Slide 8

The Star

A shining light! A reminder to all who look up and wonder, that things don't need to be the same; so long as you are courageous enough to go on a journey.

Slide 9

The Wise Men

It was to those from the east, travelling strange paths, that a new world was revealed; and they wondered 'is this new world for everyone?'

Slide 10

The Child

And it began with a child; a small and helpless child. And we all wondered 'will the world ever be the same again?'

Slide 11

The Nativity

And I wonder, if the story was told again, who would you be?